Built to learn.
Inside your product.

Core learns from experience and brings that understanding to new decisions.
Core runs where your product and data are.

COMPANY INTRODUCTION · QUOTE FREELY

Core is Sapiexo’s technology for learning and decision-making in products and systems. It runs where the product and data are.
Developed in Sweden, researched within the EU and privately funded.
Founded by Kris Ledel.

TECHNOLOGY ACCESS

Tell us what you want to build. We review your use case, agree the scope and allocate access. Contact us at sapiexo.se/access.

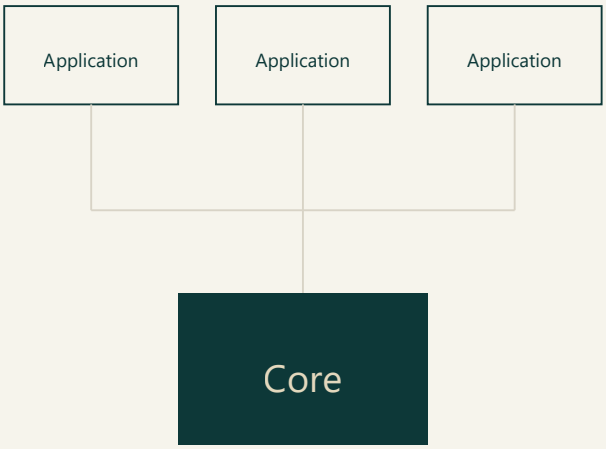

RESEARCH ACCESS

Research access is reviewed individually through Evidence Room. Accounts require approval and NDA acceptance. Material is allocated individually for an agreed review.

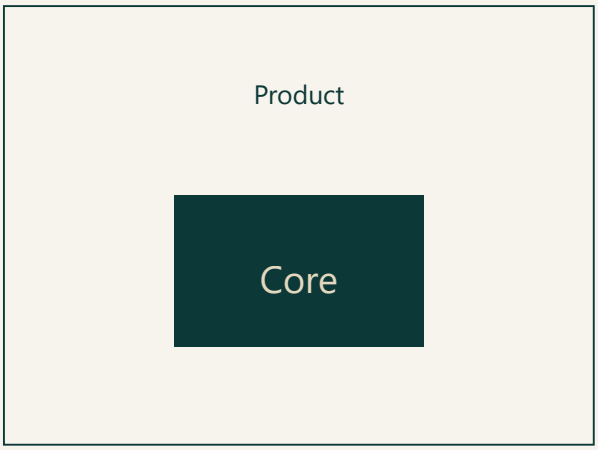

Core runs where your product and data are.

Core can provide shared intelligence across applications or run within a single product. It can be integrated with an operating system, added to an existing system, or delivered as part of a product.

ACROSS APPLICATIONS

WITHIN A PRODUCT

Learning and decisions happen where the data is. What Core learns can remain on the hardware running it.
